

EXD'09 SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

From 9 September to 8 November the Biennale of design, architecture and creativity will once again shake the city of Lisbon with a stimulating and multidisciplinary programme which marks its 10th anniversary.

As in other years, EXD'09 challenges energetic and committed volunteers that are passionate about design, architecture and contemporary culture to participate in the achievement of this edition.

The positions to be filled are: exhibition set-up assistants; exhibitions ushers and assistants; exhibition tour guides. Profiles of each candidate and the descriptive function are available in www.experimentadesign.pt.

The EXD'09 volunteers have the opportunity to closely get to know the contents and its participant, the creators, curators and lecturers, particularly during the Opening Week (9 to 13 September).

Under the theme "It's About Time", EXD'09 will question the definition and role of time in creative design and production, focusing on aspects of acceleration, emergency, timeless and their impacts on contemporary society. The programme consisting of exhibitions, debates, conferences, workshops, projections and urban interventions combine innovative proposals, emerging talents and contributions of creative and influential leading specialists in a lively and inclusive dialogue.

This collaboration includes a pre-event period (about two weeks), as well as the duration of the Biennale (9 September to 8 November), with the support of the IPJ – Instituto Português da Juventude.

Applications should be sent to edu@experimentadesign.pt until 30 June 2009.
